

Where to Go When You Need to Know: CMS-Supported Web Resources

Click on the links in the right-hand column to automatically be taken to a Web page.

	Nursing Home Compare provides detailed information about the past performance of every Medicare and Medicaid certified nursing home in the country. New regulation references related to Restraint Reduction: 42CFR 483.13(a) Accidents: 42CFR 483.25(h)	Web site: Nursing Home Compare Web site: Medicare State Operations Manual
	Learn more about bed entrapment and the dangers of side rails	Web site: FDA Hospital Bed Safety Workgroup
	IHI provides many quality improvement resources, including an explanation of PDSA and quality improvement. It also features articles related to health care quality.	Web site: IHI: Testing Change
	The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) has established a Quality Measures Management Information System (QMIS) – an electronic database of the healthcare quality measures used by CMS in its broad quality improvement public reporting efforts.	Web site: CMS Quality Measures
	This site provides access to a comprehensive library of tools and resources on nursing home improvement and clinical topics. Resources for each quality measure are available at no cost and include assessment forms, care algorithms, articles and research publications.	Web site: MedQIC Nursing Home Resources
	The Quality Measures Resource Manual contains detailed information on the enhanced set of quality measures used by CMS. This manual is version 5.0, updated in February 2006.	Web site: Quality Measures Resource Manual
	An ongoing nursing home quality campaign that engages providers, government, community partners and consumers to address pressing issues. Online you'll find resources and support for each of the campaign goals.	Web site: Advancing Excellence